

“Mark Twain Speaking...”

...with Gary Robertson as Mark Twain

A New Year's Eve 2018 Special Event at Tanglewood Ordinary!

An evening filled with the wit, wisdom and humor of Mark Twain as portrayed by Gary Robertson. The musical musings of legendary banjoist Joe Ayers will add the historical context to a very special evening. $15 of every ticket will go to support a local organization of YOUR choosing. Please be sure to select the ticket with the name of the organization you wish to support! Follow the link below to the ticketing web site. Be sure to read all the information. But before you go...

A few more details than what will fit in the on line store information:

The menu planned for this special evening includes our famous fried chicken, pot roast, shrimp scampi, turkey with dressing, scratch red skin mashed potatoes, seasoned green beans, buttered corn, mixed greens, cole slaw, biscuits cornbread and gravy. All served in our famous FamilyStyle manner with bowls/platters and seconds on the house. Also included is tea, coffee, and lemonade and apple cobbler with ice cream for dessert. AND a glass of bubbly (non-alcoholic available).

Doors open at 5:30 with live music and cash bar. Mr. Twain will begin his presentation at 6:30. Dinner is scheduled for 7:00 pm, after which Mr. Twain will resume his presentation. All should be said and done by 9:30.

Seating is community style, with tables filled on a first come first serve basis.

Please be sure to click the box for the ticket that indicates the organization you would like to support. If you would like to support more than one, add different tickets to your shopping cart with the number of tickets you want for each.
